If my child has an account through their school and she moves to another school can her account be transferred?

FAQ · https://behca.com/support/if-my-child-has-an-account-through-their-school-and-she-moves-to-another-school-can-her-account-be-transferred/

Your child's data can be transferred to your own personal account, or another account owned by the new school. Just reach out to us from the little blue chat icon in the bottom right of your screen, or send us an email at support@behca.com and we can start the transfer process!